Elder Abuse Mandatory Reporting Flow Chart for Victim Service Providers

Are you a “mandatory reporter”?
Review your statute to determine whether it mandates reporting and if you must report. Pay attention to the particular requirements. Inform the older victim at the outset if you are mandated to report.

Yes

Is the victim someone about whom abuse must be reported?
Does the victim meet the age threshold in your statute (e.g., 55, 60, or 65) or definition of “vulnerable” or “at risk” adult?

No

Yes

Has the victim experienced “elder abuse” as defined by statute?

No

Yes

Are you exempt from reporting in this case?
For example, is the information protected by an attorney-client or advocate-victim privilege that would prohibit disclosure without victim consent?

No

Yes

Report must be made.
Make the report to the appropriate agency. If there is a choice between agencies, discuss the options with the victim. Ensure you are reporting what is required, and that you are complying with VAWA or other federal confidentiality requirements. Absent victim consent (or a court mandate), you may report only the information required by statute. Remember to safety plan and offer the victim ongoing support.

No

You may not breach the victim’s confidentiality without written and informed consent!
