We’re Glad you’re here!

We hope that you consider yourself among friends who care. If you are able, please stay for fellowship and Sunday School following the worship service, that we may get to know each other better. We welcome you and encourage you to visit again soon or to call us if we can be helpful in any way.

Quote to Consider

At first glance it might seem that David is speaking of blessings from God that are enjoyed by everybody, since he is calling on the entire creation to praise God. But that is not so. Actually the blessings he is speaking of are for “those who fear him” (v. 17) and for “those who keep his covenant and remember to obey his precepts” (v. 18). He wants us to ask: Have I experienced forgiveness of sins? Has God redeemed my life from the pit? Has God satisfied me with good things? Have I discovered for myself and do I truly know that “the LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love”? If you do not know that, let me suggest that the only place where you will ever discover it to be true is at the cross of Jesus Christ.

Our Vision:

Wolf River Presbyterian Church endeavors diligently to promote a strong emphasis on exegetical preaching, most frequently through books of the Bible (II Timothy 3:16, 17). We will seek to incorporate substantive Bible study, a vital prayer life, and authentic fellowship into the life of the church (Acts 2:42), striving to see believers grow in their hunger for God's Word, from the initial steps of Christian understanding to a mature faith (I Cor. 3:2; I Peter 2:2). Through an emphasis on the word of God we will strive to build one another up (Acts 20:32), teaching biblical principles as the foundation for holy conduct, beginning with the fathers and young men of our households (I John 2:13). It is our prayer that by equipping believers for the work of service in Christ's Church (Eph. 4:12), mature believers may disciple and assist younger believers in their common goal – to give glory to God through the rearing of godly families (Deut 6:7), the demonstration of God's mercy to those in need (Matt. 25:40), and the promotion of the gospel of Jesus Christ (Mark 16:15) first in our own community, and then in the world beyond (Acts 1:8).

“Orthodox” (literally, “straight thinking”) signifies our holding steadfastly to the inerrancy of Scripture, not in a thoughtless faith, but one that recognizes God’s Word as the foundation for consistent “straight thinking.” “Presbyterian” signifies that we believe the Scriptures to teach that local church elders along with a pastor, form a “session” to care for the spiritual welfare of the members of the Church, while not presuming to interfere with their freedom of conscience in matters of Christian liberty.
