Announcements

Counseling classes will continue this Wednesday, in person and through live stream beginning at 5:45pm here at the church facility.

The weekly Wednesday prayer meeting is at 7:15pm here at the church facility. It will not be live streamed.

The session will be meeting this Tuesday at 8:00am. Please let Pastors Mark or Tom know if there are any matters you would like to bring before the session.

Due to our desire to honor those charged with protecting our community, please observe the following protocol as we deal with the Coronavirus:

- Please maintain social distancing.
- Please do not sit in pews or areas marked off.
- Please do not attend if you have fever or flu symptoms or have been with someone who has tested positive for the virus.
- Hand sanitizer has been placed in various places throughout the building.
- Please sit together as families.
- If you can not find a place to sit and observe social distancing, please find a place in the “overflow” area – the fellowship hall – where the service is being live streamed.

“We need, then, to observe that the Christian life, according to Jesus, is not all joy and laughter. Some Christians seem to imagine that, especially if they are filled with the Spirit, they must wear a perpetual grin on their face and be continuously boisterous and bubbly. How unbiblical can one become? No. In Luke’s version of the Sermon Jesus added to this beatitude a solemn woe: ‘Woe to you that laugh now.’ The truth is that there are such things as Christian tears, and too few of us ever weep them.”

John Stott

Services:

Morning Worship – 9:30am

Sunday School – 11:00am

Prayer Meeting – Wednesdays, 7:00pm.

Our Vision:

Wolf River Presbyterian Church endeavors diligently to promote a strong emphasis on exegetical preaching, most frequently through books of the Bible (II Timothy 3:16, 17). We will seek to incorporate substantive Bible study, a vital prayer life, and authentic fellowship into the life of the church (Acts 2:42), striving to see believers grow in their hunger for God's Word, from the initial steps of Christian understanding to a mature faith (I Cor. 3:2; I Peter 2:2). Through an emphasis on the word of God we will strive to build one another up (Acts 20:32), teaching biblical principles as the foundation for holy conduct, beginning with the fathers and young men of our households (I John 2:13). It is our prayer that by equipping believers for the work of service in Christ's Church (Eph. 4:12), mature believers may disciple and assist younger believers in their common goal – to give glory to God through the rearing of godly families (Deut 6:7), the demonstration of God's mercy to those in need (Matt. 25:40), and the promotion of the gospel of Jesus Christ (Mark 16:15) first in our own community, and then in the world beyond (Acts 1:8).

“Orthodox” (literally, “straight thinking”) signifies our holding steadfastly to the inerrancy of Scripture, not in a thoughtless faith, but one that recognizes God’s Word as the foundation for consistent “straight thinking.” “Presbyterian” signifies that we believe the Scriptures to teach that local church elders along with a pastor, form a “session” to care for the spiritual welfare of the members of the Church, while not presuming to interfere with their freedom of conscience in matters of Christian liberty.
