

All About North Carolina

- 1 State Flower
- 2 State Bird
- 3 State Animal
- 4 State Flag
- 5 State Map

The blossom of the dogwood tree was chosen to be North Carolina's state flower in 1941.

Dogwood is one of the most common trees in North Carolina. It is found in all areas of North Carolina.

Color the dogwood blossom.
When was the dogwood blossom chosen to be the state flower?

- 1 State Flower
- 2 State Bird
- 3 State Animal
- 4 State Flag
- 5 State Map

The northern cardinal was chosen to be the state bird of North Carolina in 1943.

Cardinals are known for their appearance and whistles. Male cardinals are bright red and females are brown with reddish wings. Cardinals sing songs year round.

Color the northern cardinal.
What are northern cardinals known for?

State Bird

State Animal

State Flag

State Map

2

3

4

5

The gray squirrel was chosen to be North Carolina's state animal in 2000.

Gray squirrels are found all over North Carolina. They are diurnal, which means that they are active during the day and sleep at night. Their diet consists mostly of seeds and nuts, but they will also eat tree buds, bark, insects, fungi, fruit, eggs, and sometimes small birds.

Color the gray squirrel.
What does diurnal mean?

State Animal

State Flag

State Map

3

4

5

North Carolina's flag was chosen in 1991.

The flag has a blue vertical stripe on the left side that contains a white star with the letters N and C in gold. Above and below the letters are two dates that are important to North Carolina and the American Revolution.

The flag also has a horizontal red stripe on the top and a white stripe on the bottom.

State Flag

State Map

4

5

The state of North Carolina is bordered by South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, and Virginia. It was the 12th state admitted to the United States.

Look at the map below. Highlight the capital city, Raleigh.

Highlight the following cities a different color:

Fayetteville, Greensboro, Charlotte, Greenville, and Asheville.

Color the rest of the state whatever color you want.

© 2017 A Page Out of History

Y A R G U A N J D E X T K S
S B J L V V T Q H O T L V I Y
L A N I D R A C T L G A L V B
E E Q W D Y C S R U Q W T O R
R A L E I G H Z O J A X O S J
T A O E K I A N I M F Q O L
G R E E N V I L L E U E T D
A U L T R D M X F T I V L J O
N N X S B J L L T R B Z L S E
O R I X A A A O R K L I C W
O E E L N G L E F F L O B V X W
K D D R O R L L E L A S B E C R
N H U Y A R I V R X S A H M I
V I G H X T A Y T L O I S I R
D G C E L V C C A L M Z A Z R

ASHEVILLE
CAROLINA
DOGWOOD
GREENVILLE
RED

BLOSSOM
CHARLOTTE
FLAG
NORTH SQUIRREL

CARDINAL
DIURNAL
GRAY
RALEIGH
STATE

Name: _____

Name: _____

All about North Carolina Assessment

What is North Carolina's capital?

What is the name of North Carolina's state bird?

What is the name of North Carolina's state flower?

What is the name of North Carolina's state animal?

Write one interesting thing you learned about North Carolina.

Name: _____

Name: _____

