

Share your Insights with Our Mentorship Program!

BLF FOUNDATION
DEVELOPING FUTURE LEADERS

The BLF Foundation is enlisting your help to become a guest speaker for the next generation of leaders through our “Developing Future Leaders” Mentorship Program. As a session speaker, you will be sharing your insight, related to our professional development topics for the calendar year. Once a month, we will meet to work on a specific professional development topics to support the growth and development of the students in the mentorship program. You will present for 30-45 minutes, and incorporate an interactive activity to help reinforce the learning outcomes for the specific session.

There are a variety of reasons to be a session speaker:

- Share insights with future leaders
- Great opportunity to share career expertise
- Ideal time to share career opportunities at your respective company
- Give back to the community
- Help assist a younger version of yourself

There will be 10 scheduled meetings, with a focus on a different topic that develops life skills and workplace competencies in college students. Open discussion is encouraged as different viewpoints can help students understand various ways to tackle situations. Each scheduled meeting will include a “homework” activity for the students to complete to demonstrate mastery and also build a portfolio to demonstrate their unique value proposition to employers.

These topics will include:

- Financial Literacy
- Time Management
- Personal Branding
- Importance of Building a Network
- Critical Decision Making
- Fundamentals of Entrepreneurship
- Goal and Vision Setting
- Personal Development
- Civic Service and Community Engagement
- Leadership Philosophy and Skill Development
