Final Identification of the Deceased

Cremation is an irreversible process. Where there is human involvement, there will always be the potential for human error. This can apply to hospital, coroner, and mortuary staffs. To be safe and sure, for your peace of mind and ours, we suggest a positive identification of the deceased before cremation. In our memorial service and direct cremation option there is no embalming and only a very limited time that the deceased may be transferred out of refrigeration and identified (refrigeration or embalming are required by state law 24 hours after death – CRS 12-54-111). So that the deceased remains in an essentially refrigerated state, we respectfully request that the identification be for no more than 30 minutes from the time we agree to begin. In the interest of full disclosure while minimizing movement of the deceased, the identification occurs in the container that will shelter the deceased prior to cremation and will be later consumed in the cremation process. We will also dress the deceased in any clothing provided. There is a $195 charge for the identification viewing at the crematory facility (staff time). If you decline the identification, please allow at least 48 hours before the cremation process begins.

Why should the Cremation Society of Colorado direct the memorial service?

We conduct ceremonies that provide dignity and opportunities for memorialization. Our professional staff will receive flowers and attractively display them. We reserve seating for the immediate family and assist with seating for family and friends. We prepare a typed summary for clergy listing various details that pertain to the deceased and family as well as the ceremony. We set up memorial registers for signatures, greet people as they enter, offer any printed goods such as memorial folders, and offer a memory card encouraging those who attend the service to write out a memory to be given later to the family. We provide envelopes to facilitate those who wish to make memorial donations. We can assist with musician selection or help coordinate their performances within the ceremony. We encourage you to provide photos and other items which we will display. At the close, we usher the family and others. We leave them with a memorial register, sympathy cards, donation envelopes and acknowledgment notes.

Our Guarantee

We are so certain you will agree that it is a good decision to engage our services in conducting the memorial ceremony that we will reduce or remove this fee if you are dissatisfied in any way.
