

Things to do in Dubai from @EbonyMiles and @brian

Things that 5 or more people voted for: ~~Burj Khalifa, Desert Tour, Dubai Mall, Jumeriah Beach, Palm Island, Jumeriah Mosque and Dubai fountains.~~ I can try and put together an itinerary so that we can buy tickets/register before hand. If anyone wants to help or has any suggestions about when to put things (so that sites we visit are close together) let me know.

Also, not everyone voted for the sites in Abu Dhabi, are there folks that don't want to go to Abu Dhabi the last day?

Agenda

This is a rough idea of what we will be doing each day to help us buy tickets. Plenty of free time for other things

Sunday: Desert tour 7:30am-11:30am, Lunch and sight seeing at palm island

Monday: Mosque - jumeriah mosque (9:45am) | PM - burj al arab, jumeriah beach,

Hey Everyone!

Below is the list of activities that we've talked about in the GroupMe and from the list that Brian constructed. Sites, Tours and Abu Dhabi have separate sections in the table. The items under Abu Dhabi can all be done within the last day of our trip (1/21) as we discussed previously.

I think ideally we should plan 2 activities(Areas) a day: something in the first half of the day (10am-3pm) and second half (3pm-8pm). So for our time in Dubai, that is about 8 activities. I'm comfortable with breaking up into groups if interests fall differently for certain things.

Don't hesitate to add any other attractions or comments if you have any! If you add anything, use a different color so that we know something was added. I've written in purple.
