Our professional experience

For 100 years, we’ve been supplying equipment to the world’s most prestigious restaurants as well as professional laundries. In fact, we’re the only global brand with a full range of both professional and domestic kitchen appliances.

One in two chefs featured in the Michelin Guide in Europe use Electrolux equipment in their restaurant kitchens.

Our design focus

Nothing is extraneous. Everything is carefully considered. And in the clean architectural lines and soft curves, you’ll notice echoes from the world around us today: modern architecture, contemporary product design and interior design trends.

“We had in mind three key words: modern, distinctive and premium.”

Thomas Johansson
Design Director,
Electrolux

To ultimate functionality, our design team brings elegant simplicity, with an emphasis on the use of pure materials and sophisticated textures.

Leaders in sustainability

We are a globally recognised sustainability leader.

We have a strong track record in sustainable operations and are proud to be ranked among the world’s sustainability leaders in the Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI) for the eighth consecutive year. DJSI World includes the 10% best-in-class economic, environmental and social performers among the world’s 2,500 largest companies.

Our products

From a life cycle analysis, we know that our greatest potential to positively impact the environment is to improve efficiency of products during use. We know there is a market for products with high levels of energy efficiency and low environmental impact.

The way we work

Our commitment to sustainability is integrated throughout our organisation — from boardroom to product design, from factory floor to marketing and communications.

Sustainability is where our heart lies because being environmentally friendly is simply good housekeeping. But not only manufacture energy-efficient models. We also strive wherever possible to minimise our operation’s impact on the environment. True to our word, Electrolux is listed in the Dow Jones Sustainable Index as a leader in the consumer durable industry. We’ve supported the WWF for 20 years and work in partnerships with universities to explore sustainable supply solutions. And we’re proud to have won the European Commission’s Sustainable Energy Award (Corporate Commitment category).

Green highlights

- Infinite induction cooking: Up to 40% less energy than when using other electric hobs.
- RealLife® Dishwashers: Astonishingly, hand washing uses 70 litres more water than every single RealLife® full cycle. And the RealLife® WaterSave Dishwasher equipped with WaterSave technology and using only 50% as much water* delivers spotlessly clean glass and dishware. It stores the cleanest water in the final rinse of the previous wash, inside a dedicated, internal 3.5 litre tank. A+++ fridge-freezers: Outstanding energy efficiency for appliances that are always switched on. Consumes as little energy as a light bulb.

* According to Electrolux research, 49.4% lower water consumption per place setting compared with all dishwashing models sold in Europe during 2013.

Greener living

Big business is often seen as the main culprit in the global warming and resources debate, but it’s easy to forget the environmental impact of ordinary households – 30% of global energy production and 20% of all CO₂ emissions are attributable to domestic use.
