Sample for Guided Writing

Topic and Controlling Idea

Overcoming fear is like overcoming failure because it opens the gates of success.

Main Ideas	Supporting Details
First Main Idea
Fear keeps you from action	Holds you back from what you really want
	Afraid to take steps toward a goal because you may fail
	No action means never moving forward
	Frozen in one place no matter how much you want something
	Won't ever win or be successful if you don't overcome the fear
Second Main Idea
Personal experience where you took chance	Wanted to share ideas in class
	Scared no one would like my idea
	Thought about the positive side of me sharing my ideas out loud- such as: other kids would learn, may earn respect from teacher, I may learn
	Things turned out okay and no one laughed

Concluding Statement

The emotions of facing a fear may be unpleasant and hold you back, but if you're able to think about your feelings in a positive light once it's happened (or as they're happening), then you're on the right track to success with anything.
