

Student Tool 37: Living Under Jim Crow Laws Featured Web Resources

History in the First Person: Living Under Jim Crow Laws Web Resources

Consider using the web resources below to help familiarize your students with what it was like to live in a segregated America under Jim Crow Laws. Have students share what they have learned with each other and compare what they have learned through this research to what they learned by watching the archived program.

<http://www.jimcrowtobarackobama.com/> --Website of the documentary, From Jim Crow to Barack Obama. It includes excerpts from the documentary as individuals describe their experiences growing up in a segregated America and participating in the Civil Rights Movement as well as their lives today.

<http://www.hectv.org/video/12859/jim-crow-to-barack-obama/> --Archive of the HEC-TV program, Liquid Light: Jim Crow to Barack Obama. It includes an interview with Denise Ward-Brown, director of From Jim Crow to Barack Obama and excerpts from the documentary.

<http://www.thekingcenter.org/> Website of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Nonviolent Social Change

<http://www.civilrightsmuseum.org/> Website of the National Civil Rights Museum. Teacher and student educational resources are included.

<http://www.civilrights.org/resources/civilrights101/desegregation.html>

Learn a great deal about the development of Civil Rights in American history from its origins until today. The site includes a chronology, glossary, explanations of important events in Civil Rights history including the movement for Black American civil rights as well as additional movements for other minority groups and women.

<http://www.history.com/topics/civil-rights-movement> History Channel website on the Civil Rights Movement

<http://www.jfklibrary.org/JFK/JFK-in-History/Civil-Rights-Movement.aspx> John F. Kennedy Presidential Library and Museum website on the Civil Rights Movement

<http://www.history.com/topics/congress-of-racial-equality> History Channel website on the Congress of Racial Equality and its involvement in the Civil Rights Movement

<http://www.history.com/topics/student-non-violent-coordinating-committee> History Channel website on the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and its involvement in the Civil Rights Movement

<http://www.pbs.org/wnet/jimcrow/> PBS website on the rise and fall of Jim Crow Laws. It includes a timeline, individual narratives and interviews, and historic information.

