

Studio 105 Arts Club Internship

Founded in 1953, Center for Arts-Inspired Learning (CAL) is NE Ohio's leading arts education organization. With a budget of $1.9 million, CAL provides more than 6,500 programs to youth each year in schools, libraries, and other community centers. Working with artists in music, dance, theater, visual and digital arts, CAL delivers programs that teach arts disciplines and are integrated into the core curriculum.

CAL is seeking an individual with youth experience to support after-school arts programming for grades K-8 at our Studio 105 programming space located at 1470 E. 105th Street. This position will support the program manager and CAL teaching artists during our after-school program.
