HOW IT WORKS
The Center for Arts-Inspired Learning has created the ArtWorks 15-Day Challenge to promote arts integrated learning during school closures. We want our scholars to have the opportunity to get creative and have some fun during this time.

In this packet you will find prompts and activities that connect to literacy, science, math, engineering, health, leadership, and emotions. There are activities to try on your own or some to try with a partner.

Scholars can choose activities at the following levels: Beginner (Age 5-8) Intermediate (Age 9-13) Advanced (Age 14-18)

DAY 1’S CHALLENGE: WHAT IS ART TO YOU?

MAKE IT

Make this “Rona Monster” out of Tissue Boxes.

MATERIALS

o tissue Box
o colored pencils, markers, or paint to decorate your monster o googly eyes (you can also draw this on) o white paper or a piece of cardboard colored white o black sharpie or marker

o other found items at home that you can use to add creativity to your monster

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Pull out any plastic inner lining inside the tissue box before you start
2. Color the outside of the tissue box, you can paint the box, or tape paper to the outside
3. We also challenge you to color the inside of the box to make it easier to see the monster’s mouth

5. For the eyes, be creative your monster could have 1 big eye, or several allover it’s body. These can be drawn on or made using google eyes, pipe cleaners, or popsicle sticks
6. Cut out large teeth from paper or cardboard. Glue the teeth to the inside of the tissue box

DAY 1’S CHALLENGE: WHAT IS ART TO YOU?
Some people decide to make art by writing. Some people WRITE stories like Dr. Suess and some people WRITE poetry like Maya Angelou.

WRITE IT
Here are examples of people WRITING art!

BEGINNER:
One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish - Dr. Suess

INTERMEDIATE:
You may write me down in History, With your bitter twisted lies.
You may trod me in the very dirt, But still, like dust, I’ll rise - Maya Angelou

ADVANCED:
I do not wish to be loved, I do not wish to have dug.
It's the concrete that swallows me, With a morning hug. - Anonymous

WRITE A POEM
Everyone is an artist. You’ve read what Dr. Suess and Maya Angelou have written. Now it's YOUR turn. Using these artists as your inspiration, write a 4 line poem about how art makes you FEEL! Does it make you happy, sad, mad, glad? Well, write about it in the four lines below. IT DOES NOT HAVE TO RHYME. Remember, everyone is an artist.

BEGINNERS:
Make it Rhyme

INTERMEDIATE:
Make it rhyme using a simile. A simile is a figure of speech involving the comparison of one thing with another thing of a different kind, used to make a description more emphatic or vivid.

ADVANCED:
Make it rhyme using a simile and personification. Personification is the attribution of a personal nature or human characteristic to something nonhuman, or the representation of an abstract quality in human form.
