NOTE FROM THE EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF OHIO

God loves you! No exceptions.

This short statement captures much of what the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Ohio believes about God and one another. God loves each of us, now of course, but also eternally, and gives us to one another in community.

Unfortunately, throughout human history, we’ve experienced many times when fear, greed, and the desire for power over another creates injustice and oppression. As followers of Jesus, we are called to reject fear and greed and to act boldly for freedom and justice, as both freedom seekers and their helpers did along the Underground Railroad.

We are proud to partner with Cleveland Public Theatre to examine many of our ideas and beliefs about slavery, suffering, liberation, and hope. Black lives matter, and we pray this experience of Station Hope will help that truth become a greater living reality for all.

SPECIAL THANKS

CPT is proud to recognize three Cleveland organizations who have made social justice central to their mission. Restore Cleveland Hope, Inc., ACLU of Ohio, and NAACP Cleveland Branch call us to defend our rights, end discrimination, and know our history. Please consider supporting these organizations with a financial contribution and help our community grow strong into the future.

RESTORE CLEVELAND HOPE, INC. [5:15 – 6:35 (ET)]

The mission of Restore Cleveland Hope, Inc. is to celebrate Cleveland’s historic anti-slavery past through the establishment and operation of an Underground Railroad education and resource center in the historic Cozad-Bates House. Learn more here.

ACLU OF OHIO [7:05 – 8:30 (ET)]

The mission of the ACLU of Ohio is to aid in maintaining and extending constitutional and other fundamental rights, liberties, privileges, and immunities, and to take all legitimate action in furtherance of that object without political partisanship. Learn more here.

NAACP CLEVELAND BRANCH [8:35 – 10:00 (ET)]

The mission of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is to ensure the political, educational, social, and economic equality of rights of all persons and to eliminate racial hatred and racial discrimination. Learn more here.
