Here's what clients had to say about Cherie Shepard, Jason Herbert, and team:

"It has become as important to have a reliable relationship with a professional recruiter as it is to have a solid attorney or CPA. Cherie Shepard has taken the time to truly understand our business and our corporate culture. I have found Cherie to have a strong commitment to understanding our requirements and finding the absolute best candidates available. Cherie is a completion artist that never gives up and has been an outstanding resource to our company."

Brian Cohen, Chief Executive
Hänel Storage Systems

"Jason was direct, to the point, and found a great candidate within a matter of weeks for a role that we had tried to fill for 2 years. We didn't feel as though he was throwing several resumes at us to see if anything would stick, but rather screened well enough so that the candidates that came to us were well vetted. Our team highly recommends Jason, and will certainly use him moving forward."
