

My Story – The Towell Family

The Towell family is looking forward to what the future holds. As their little super hero reaches each new milestone in his life, his parents will continue to be there to love him, support him and make sure that he is connected to resources like Summit DD that will help him succeed.

Watch their story

Transforming and Listening: Community Meeting Update

Late September, nearly 150 people attended three community meetings throughout the county to learn how Summit DD will adapt to the changes called for CMS and the DODD in how Ohio will provide services to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Recent Blog Posts

Summit DD Wants To Hear From You: 2016 Action Plan

School-Age Supports for Kids with Disabilities

Upcoming Events

November 26-27, 2015
Thanksgiving Break, Agency Closed

December 15, 2015
December Board Meeting

Dec 24 - Jan 1, 2015
Winter Break, Agency Closed

Two Talented Artists

It's a great accomplishment for artists to share their work with the community. For the month of November, two extremely talented artists with developmental disabilities will have their art on display at the Studios of Jack Richard.

From Kent State To Successful Career

Leaving college and entering the workforce can be tough for anyone, but Elizabeth, who has Down Syndrome, wasn't going to leave anything to chance. She was prepared for the transition from school life to the working world.

View All Events