COMMUNITY INFORMATION:

The City of Martinsburg, recognized as the "fastest growing City in the State" is located in the heart of the Eastern Panhandle. Martinsburg's recent downtown revitalization and strong community values make it a great place to work and live. Close proximity to Washington D.C. and Baltimore allow you to enjoy the big cities and the small-town feel at the same time. With many recreational, cultural, and arts activities, Parkersburg takes pride in its title of "Gateway to the Shenandoah Valley." Martinsburg is known for its historic buildings and areas such as the Seibert Distillery, Washington Heritage Trail, Textile Mills, and Vanmeter Ford Bridge.
