

United Way Giving Societies

United Way is the unifying, driving force to get lasting results for Dallas. We believe in the power of unity to create lasting change, whether it's by encouraging innovation or giving existing organizations the ability to do more, we won't stop until the job is complete. We set bold goals for our local community and measure progress to ensure we're achieving the goals, together. Our focus on education, income and health means we provide both short-term relief and long-term solutions to create lasting change.
