

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. What is the historical context of policing in black communities?
2. How has the debate played out in your community?
3. How do partisan politics affect the discussion on the issue of policing? Would it be better to engage the debate outside of a major election year?
4. Could some of the proposed steps forward be replicated elsewhere?
5. The mayor, the city council, the city charter and a variety of residents all have different ideas for the future of Minneapolis. What tactics could be used to increase productive dialogue between all parties?
6. Whose responsibility is it to chart the future of the city's public safety?