General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?

2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. Cities vary in size, demographics, economics, etc. Is it fair to use the ongoing debate and eventual outcome in Minneapolis as a blueprint for other cities?

2. What can community members do to protect their communities when they feel the police are not able to do so?

3. Whose responsibility is it to chart the future of the city's public safety?