

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. Thomas Woods says major global, international crime syndicates are responsible for dispersing most of the fake drugs. What are some challenges to catching and prosecuting these syndicates?
2. Kenya has a team of inspectors, but it is understaffed and has no legal muscle. Why don't you think preventing fake drugs is a high priority for Kenya?
3. What could be the consequences of the creation of a "superbug" as Dr. Mercy Maina warns?