

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. What are some of the reasons why fistulas are still so common even though they're nearly 100 percent preventable?
2. What tactics does Sarah Omega use to destigmatize fistulas?
3. Habiba Mohamed says that the moment someone is healed, there is a ripple effect through the whole community. What long term impact could treatment and the destigmatization of fistula have on society?