General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?

2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. Are there any ethical implications of putting volunteers on the front lines of COVID-19 contact tracing?

2. What are some other existing conditions in India that are complicating the fight against the pandemic?

3. For some, the lockdown has pushed economic conditions from bad to much worse. How should a state balance public health and public welfare?

4. Are there any lessons from India's response for your own community?