

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. How would limited or no electricity impact your daily routine?
2. Do you believe that systemic racism is one of the causes of the poor infrastructure on Navajo and other Native reservations? Explain your answer
3. Modular solar units are one solution being offered to off-grid homes in the rural Navajo Nation. Is there an application for similar technology in urban settings?
4. A big piece of the solar versus coal debate is the economic impact of closing the coal plant on the already destitute Navajo Nation. How do you balance the need for economic well being with environmental well being?