

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. Many of Rwanda's churches were complicit in the genocide. Why do you think they were asked to participate in reconciliation?
2. When seeking healing after such an atrocity, how do you balance the desire for punishment and justice with forgiveness and moving on?
3. What lessons from Rwanda's reconciliation can be applied elsewhere?