

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. What role does social media play in connecting the Indian diaspora to friends and family in India? How could social media be used in other crises?
2. What other global networks could be utilized to respond to emergencies like this one?
3. What health care equity issues are at play in this story? Why do you think so many Indian doctors come to the U.S.?