

1. Is it possible to prepare for potential large-scale unrest without intimidating peaceful protesters? What would that look like?
2. Do you think the fortifications around the courthouse and the predeployment of the National Guard increased public safety or increased tension in the community?
3. Looking back, do you think the preparations for the trial should have been handled differently? Explain.