

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. How would a lack of water access in your school impact your learning?
2. Are there other problems that this exchange model can be used to address?
3. How does H2O for Life make sure the partner communities receiving the water systems are invested in the project?
4. What ethical considerations should be taken into account when engaging in this exchange program?