Suggested writing prompt (250 words)

Explore the concept of food sovereignty and the role it plays in cultural identity. What foods do your culture identify with? What would it feel like to lose the knowledge and the experience of that component of your culture?